

My husband and I decided we wanted to start seeking a friend for our 1 year old Australian Cattle Dog, Hank, so on the first adventure we went to Aggieland Humane Society. In the very last kennel was a 12wk old Border Collie mix and our newest little bundle of joy: Holly. She had those BIG brown eyes we couldn't just leave behind and at that moment we knew she would be a wonderful addition to our family.

It was definitely a one-stop search for us! Holly is now an amazing little sister and has been tugging at everyone's heart strings she encounters. At the vet and pet store everyone knows the duo and can't get enough of much Holly loves to be cuddled. She was the missing piece of our puzzle and thanks to Aggieland Humane Society we were able to find her!
