Yoshi Says Thank You!

Two weeks ago Yoshi was in desperate need of a thorough dental cleaning and work up. Thanks to you we met our fundraising goal for Yoshi in just 18 hours! We wanted to thank everyone who contributed and helped provide Yoshi with the treatment he needed. Yoshi now has a healthy smile and is patiently waiting at Aggieland Humane Society for his forever home.

Special Thanks

One of our biggest needs has been met. We have been desperately in need of a new vehicle for transporting our adoptable pets to events and for other field trips. The College Station Police Department has generously donated one of their used vans to Aggieland Humane Society. The van is currently undergoing some functional changes so that it can fit our specific needs, but you will soon see our new wheels around town. We want to thank the College Station Police Department for their generous donation and support. If you would like to know how you can help meet the needs of Aggieland Humane Society, take a look at our wishlist at AggielandHumane.org/wishlist
Kennel Moments
“The Three Musketeers”

Hattie, Tailor, and Tia are Aggieland Humane Society’s three musketeers. They are a curious and playful bunch always ready for a fight against a villainous blanket or evil ball. The peculiar thing is that the fight itself is anything but vicious. Grapple moves turn into hugs. Paw swipes are soft, and tumbles turn into meditative poses. At any given moment, Hattie can be seen pouncing at the blanket ends, quickly followed by her comrade Tia. Tailor is the most spirited of the bunch, and it is not uncommon for him to swing in to the battle from the hanging toy, much like a chandelier, in true musketeer fashion. It’s clear that these three musketeers believe in “all for one and one for all!”

Hattie, Tailor, and Tia are still looking for homes. These musketeers are hoping to make a life-long ally and to protect them from any foes around the house. If you would like to adopt one of our musketeers or any other pets, visit: AggielandHumane.org/Adopt/
